

KS2 Topic Table

Term: Summer 2015

Class: 4

|   |  |
|---|--|
| Language, Literacy and Communication | Fiction and Non-fiction texts.Reading for different purposes. Writing in a range of forms, focusing on punctuation and spelling.Communicating clearly and confidently, listening to others and expressing own opinions |
| Mathematical Development             | Numbers and the number system; measures and money; shape, position and movement; handling data.  |
| Science                              | Living things in their habitats – revising the characteristics of living things and the basic needs their habitats supplyForces – Looking at a range of different forces and their effects                                 |
| History                              | Children in Victorian Britain – comparing and contrasting the lives of children from the past with those of us now   |
| Welsh Language                       | Following the 'Naid Ymlaen' and 'Pod Antur' schemes of work including reading, writing and oracy.  |
| Physical Education                   | Athletics Activities and Summer Games (tennis, rounders and kwik-cricket)  |
| Music                                | Dragon Scales – exploring pentatonic scales.   |
| P.H.S.E                              | Growing up   |

If you have any interest in, or knowledge of any of the areas above, we would greatly appreciate your input.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you are able to spare some time.

Thank you.

Mrs L Pepper (Class Teacher)